A Letter File for the Household.

Here with is given an illustration of the latest development of the "National" cabinet letter file. This is in the form of a miniature letter file, especially adapted to the wants of families, clergymen, physicians, and, in fact, alphabetical index. This file is also made on a larger scale for business houses and up to any capacity. The National cabinet letter file is said to have greater capacity than any other letter file in the market, and therefore requires fewer indexes. The remaining cuts show the design of a new card holder and a
